Part II: Chronology

| Date             | Event   | Appeal Book Reference |
|------------------|---|-----------------------|
| 22 August 2013   | First to Sixth Respondents ( Boral Parties ) seek orders in the Supreme Court of Victoria that the Appellant be punished for contempt of Court pursuant to O 75 of the Supreme Court (General Civil Procedure) Rules 2005 (Vic) (the Rules) for breach of court orders. |                       |
| 2 October 2013   | Boral parties seek an order from the Supreme Court requiring the Appellant to make discovery of documents in accordance with Rule 29.07 of the Rules for the purpose of proving the alleged contempt.   |                       |
| 23 October 2013  | Associate Justice Daly of the Supreme Court dismisses Boral parties' application for discovery.   |                       |
| 28 October 2013  | Attorney-General joined as seventh respondent to the contempt proceeding.   |                       |
| 25 March 2014    | Justice Digby of the Supreme Court allows an appeal from the decision of Associate Justice Daly and orders that the Appellant make discovery of documents sought in the Boral parties' discovery summons.   |                       |
| 24 October 2014  | The Court of Appeal refuses the Appellant leave to appeal.  |                       |
| 30 October 2014  | Justice Digby stays the discovery order made on 25 March 2014 until 28 November 2014  |                       |
| 20 November 2014 | High Court of Australia grants a stay of the discovery order until the application for special leave, and if special leave is granted, until the hearing and determination of the appeal  |                       |
| 13 February 2015 | Special leave to appeal to the High Court granted.  |                       |
